AHAVA

Since its creation, Ahava has developed fine plant and mineral-based skincare products harvested from the Dead Sea: the mud, the mineral salts, the trace elements and the seaweed of Dunaliella...They revealed multiple powers for maintaining skin health, soothing the spirit, curing skin ailments, and helping to fight moisture depletion, premature aging and the loss of vitality.

SOURCE

Harvested from nature's most prolific source of nourishing minerals, the Dead Sea, the Source skincare collection replenishes your skin and recharges its natural functioning, instantly improving its look, feel and overall well-being.
